

Thomas Munley

Thomas Munley is one of most decorated swimmers to come out of Portage Central. Known for his hard work ethic in the pool and the classroom, Thomas was a 10-time Big 8 conference champion, earned 7 All-State and 2 All-American honors, and was ranked 11th in country in the 200 freestyle at the end of his senior year. More importantly, Thomas was team leader who helped the Mustangs to 2 conference championships his junior and senior years. At Michigan State, he continued his success in the pool, where he lettered all 4 years, and earned NCAA All-American honors his senior year.

Biggest sports thrill: taking a crucial 2nd place to help MSU beat Indiana in a dual meet for the first time in 57 years.