

Todd Langerveld

Regarded as an exceptional three-sport athlete, Todd Langerveld excelled in football, basketball and baseball while at Portage Central. As a junior Todd was an All-Conference football and basketball player and helped lead PC to the class A State Championship game in football. In basketball, Todd help lead the Mustangs to their first conference championship in 29 years, and currently stands 7th all time in career rebounding for the Mustangs. In his final year of football for the Mustangs, Todd was All-Conference, All-State and an All-American free safety. Todd was an All-City baseball player as a senior as well as team MVP. He continued his football career at Michigan State University where he lettered 3 years as a strong safety. Todd was also an excellent academic scholar at MSU, earning All-Big 10 Academic Team honors in 1980. Biggest thrill in athletics: *Being a part of the Mustang's march to the football state championship game in 1977.
